❑ Unfair play

- Should any intentional hardware reset occur, the referee may decide to end the match with the offending player receiving a default loss.
- Should two players agree to a rematch in order to solve any game related problem, a rematch shall be played.
- The following actions will be considered unfair play:
 - 1) The use of any cheat program and/or map hack program.
 - 2) An intentional disconnection
 - 3) The use of any settings exceeding the standard and permitted settings
 - 4) Clearly allowing one's opponent to win a match.
 - 5) If a referee decides that external conditions (Press, Team Leader, Player, Spectator, etc) are giving, or have given an unfair advantage to a player, the player may be given a warning or lose by default at the referee's sole discretion.
 - 6) Unsportsmanlike behavior or, in general, disruptive (e.g., shouting), inappropriate and/or unprofessional actions directed towards another player (even inside the game).
 - 7) The use of a program bug that is determined by the board of referees as being unfair.
- Upon discovery of any player committing any violations regarded as unfair play, the offending player, at the sole discretion of the board of referees, may receive a warning, a forfeit loss or, in extreme cases, be disqualified from the tournament.

During the course of the Grand Final, the board of referees may determine other actions to embody unfair play.

❑ Final provisions

- The above-mentioned rules may be amended in the following cases:
 - 1) Should the WCG Committee, at its sole discretion, decide to adopt the latest patch/version release of each official game;
 - 2) Should the WCG Committee, at its sole discretion, decide to modify in-game settings and options required by the use of most recent patch version/release
 - 3) Should the WCG Committee, at its sole discretion, decide to use a newly released Cheat Protection Program and/or cheat protection functions
 - 4) Should the WCG Committee, at its sole discretion, decide to change game settings and/or operations guidelines due to differences between online and offline tournaments.
